The original premise of Phillip Winterberg's Bin ich klein? (Am I Small?) is simplicity itself, is basically and sweetly straightforwardly that size is always and forever relative and that depending on the body types and proportions of those around us, we are perceived as being at times small and at times large (and thus, we are everything, and therefore just right).

The beauty of the "Ich bin klein" prayer is that it begins by reinforcing the innocence and simplicity of child ("I am small / my heart is pure"), which are words a child can easily grasp, and ends with an affirmation that the child reciting the prayer loves Jesus ("So no one will live in my heart by Jesus alone"). Bam. Easy.
